

Estimated Costs

JUNIOR YEAR (including summer session)

UND tuition: (in-state tuition, based on Fall and Summer 2011 rates; Minnesota: $7,716; non-resident: $16,767) For more information on tuition rates, see: http://und.edu/finance-operations/student-account-services/tuition-rates.cfm	$7,092/academic year $288.92/credit hour
Room & Board: (on campus rate, based on double room, both semesters; prorated for summer, based on Fall semester 2011) For more information on housing rates, see: http://und.edu/student-life/housing/residence-halls/rates.cfm	$6,284
Other living expenses
Textbooks and supplies	$1000-1200
Physical exam	50-100
Background study	60
Insurance*
Health	400-600
Automobile	200-500
Identification pin	10
Professional clothes	200
Living expenses for supervised practice experiences	0-1000
Membership fees
AND student member (required)	50
North Dakota Nutrition Council (optional)	10
Professional meeting attendance expenses (varies annually)
Legislative Day in Bismarck	100

*Professional liability insurance and travel/accident are covered by the UND policy.

This will vary with the selection of sites since some students may stay in Grand Forks, while others may stay at home or with relatives/friends in out-of-town sites. Others may stay in hotels.

SENIOR YEAR

UND tuition (based on Summer and Fall 2011 rates)	$7,092/academic year $288.92/credit hour
Room and Board based on 2011-2012 academic year	$6284 (on-campus rate)
Other living expenses
Textbooks and supplies	$500-700
Physical exam	50-100
Background study	60
Insurance*
Health	400-600
Automobile	200-500
Professional clothes	200
Transportation to supervised practice experiences	100-500
Living expenses for supervised practice experiences	100- 2000
Membership fees
AND student member (required)	50
North Dakota Nutrition Council (optional)	10
Professional meeting attendance (varies annually with location of meetings)	100-1000

*Professional liability insurance and travel/accident are covered by the UND policy.

This will vary with the selection of sites since some students may stay in Grand Forks, while others may stay at home or with relatives/friends in out-of-town sites. Others may stay in hotels.

Online course tuition is not covered under UND's cap for full time students. Regardless of how many credits you take per term, you will pay tuition for each online course credit.

Financial aid information can be found at the following website:

<http://und.edu/admissions/financial-aid/>. You may wish to call the Admissions Office to verify the latest figures at 701-777-3121 or email: SFA@UND.edu.

Program Fees:

Beginning Fall Semester, 2012, incoming juniors will be assessed a program fee of $500 per semester or $45 per credit to help alleviate and consolidate some of the extra expense associated with the coordinated program. Beginning Summer Term, 2013, all students enrolled in the professional phase of the dietetics major will be assessed a program fee.